Dear Colleague,

Welcome to the Sun Academic Initiative Program. Sun is pleased to join you in our collaborative efforts to bring technology education to the academic marketplace.

Sun has designed the Sun Academic Initiative program to support you in providing education in the latest Sun technologies on your campus. Using educational material created and tested by Sun course developers, you can introduce your students to technologies that are essential tools in today's IT world.

We hope that you, your faculty and students will find the Sun Academic Initiative program useful and valuable. If you have any questions regarding this program please email us at Contact_SAI@sun.com. For continuous updates on the program refer to: www.sunacademic.com.

Welcome to the Sun Academic Initiative program.

Sincerely,
